

College Progress Recorder

A website used by college students to track their progress and keep them on track to get a job after graduation.

About Us

We are a team of five students at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, who came up with an idea and decided to create a website. We worked together to create a product that we felt was missing and could be beneficial to a lot of people. This website is a way to help users, mainly college students keep track of their goals and provide steps to help them accomplish their goals.

Use This Website To...

- Help you track your progress for all your goals
- Provide you with resources that are specific to your needs
- Help you network and get your questions answered by recent grads and professionals
